

Name _____

APRIL BOOK REPORT

Due _____

After you've read a HISTORICAL FICTION BOOK on your level and taken the AR quiz, you will bring the book you read and come to school as your character. Be prepared to tell all about yourself (your character) COMPLETELY in complete sentences without prompting. (You don't have to memorize the order of the questions, but be prepared to share lots of details.)

1. Introduce yourself. What is your full name (as much as is provided in the book)? Where are you from? Anything else we should know about you?
2. What year is it? What is happening in the world right now?
3. What is the best thing that happens to you (in the story)? The worst?
4. What is the most important lesson you learn from your life?

Name _____

Historical Fiction Interview Rubric

Responses

Gives lots of details 0.....5.....10.....15.....20

Answers the questions on the front of this page 0.....5.....10

Appearance

Body language matches your character 0.....5.....10

Costume 0.....5.....10

(Don't buy anything, but put in effort to look like your character.)

Has book 0.....5

Oral Presentation

Speaks loudly and clearly to the class 0.....5

Fun to listen to (shows character's personality or accent) 0.....5

Obviously practiced (no long pauses or "umms") 0.....5.....10

Uses first person ("I think" instead of "he thinks") 0.....5

AR Test 0..1..2..3..4..5..6..7..8..9..10

Turned in complete and on time with this rubric 0.....5.....10

Final Score _____/100